

CHALLENGER LEAGUE BASEBALL CLINIC

Calling all Challenger League players to get the season started right with an instructional baseball clinic to help you with the basics of baseball!

This mini Spring Training is being organized by Challenger player, Tommy Kreutzer with the assistance of family and friends.

Who: Challenger Players AND any other teens or young adults with special needs

Where: Blueberry Park

When: Sunday April 21st 2:00-4:00 pm

Why: As a mini Spring Training to help you get ready for the season!

How: Simply show up on April 21st. If possible, RSVP to Sue Kern, so that we have an estimate number of players, but it is ok just to show up too!

Cost: FREE!

Time with Challenger friends getting ready for the baseball season? PRICELESS!!

 Please note that this clinic is OPEN to any other teens or young adults with special needs that may want to participate!!

