

My modules aren't working! They're only displaying data for one division. How do I get data to display for every division?

You will need to place a division module on the page. The division module automatically rotates through divisions, and all the modules that depend on it rotate along with it. If there is no division module on the page, the modules will only display data for one division, and will not rotate.

Unique solution ID: #1014

Author: MYL

Last update: 2015-09-04 18:23